

Thank you for registering!
Here's what you need to do next:

- 1) Get the book. If you don't already have Buddy Booby's Birthmark-- request a copy from your local library or purchase one at www.buddyboobysbirthmark.com. Ten percent of the book's profits will be donated to the VBF.
- 2) Start planning some special, fun ways for the children to celebrate this event! To help get you started, we've provided a few downloadable extras--including a press release (to notify local media of your school/group's participation); bookmarks (for coloring); puzzles; and plenty of creative ideas (to make your Read-Along meaningful and memorable. If you'd like your class to become 'pen pals' with another participating class from another part of the world, email us, and we'll share the addresses! Feel free to use your own original ideas too!
- 3) On May 15th-- The VBF's internationally recognized "Day of Awareness"--read the children's book, Buddy Booby's Birthmark with your class/group. Learn more about the book at www.buddyboobysbirthmark.com.
- 4) Discuss the book's universal messages of tolerance, respect, friendship, and acceptance--not just of birthmarks, but all differences in general!

We appreciate your support and commend your dedication to fostering public education, awareness, and acceptance of children with birthmarks. In appreciation, we will be sending your school a commemorative Certificate of Participation as well as posting your school name on our web site. Have fun and send us any questions or comments to info@buddyboobysbirthmark.com
